

TeachMeet Ohio County 2014

	ROOM 108	ROOM 110	ROOM 117	ROOM 111	ROOM 138
8:30-8:50	Materials Safety Data Sheet (MSDS). Required for all teachers that handle any type of hazardous materials throughout the school year. Arthur Hale.	STAR Reading Enterprise: Learn how to use STAR for more than an AR range. Jaime McKown: PreK-6th	Student Ambassador Program- students learn leadership skills and use this ability to help new students easily adjust to a new environment. Bryanne Shaffer: Prek-6th	App Mashing: using various apps to create classroom projects Elizabeth Ayer (Daviness County): All Grades	Sp Ed Updates - required for all sp ed teacher. Christy Nofsinger, Monte Gannon, Pam Shrewsbury
9-9:20	Standards Based Instruction/Grading. Edwina Pharis, Natasha Fulkerson	Discovery Education's Board Builder: build and share online bulletin boards - students research and search within the safe, educationally-focused resources in Discovery Education's database. Amy Grant (KET): All Grades	Student autobiographical videos. Using iMovie with students to create digital projects. Jennifer Segers, Evan Decker (OCMS Student): All Grades	Primary ActivBoard Centers: Different websites that can be used during math and literacy centers. For example: www.turtlediary.com, www.abcya.com & www.illuminations.nctm.org. Kortni Mattingly, Sheri Culbertson: PreK-3	Seating for Optimal Learning, The Occupational Therapy Approach Presented by Jessica Lynn, MS OTR/L and Dale Lynn, OTR/L Objectives for this session include: Why is seating important? How to identify children who may need seating modifications. Easy to implement classroom modification to promote optimal learning. Sitting vs Moving, identifying an appropriate balance. Classroom activities to promote optimal learning.
9:30-9:50	Common misconceptions in Science. Chuck Adams: All grades	Middle School Literacy - These online self-paced lessons for blended learning, funded by the Walmart Foundation, are designed to enhance the literacy skills of struggling readers in grades 5–8. Each uses videos, interactive activities, note taking, reading, and writing to present students with an engaging science, social studies, mathematics, or English language arts topic. Amy Grant (KET) 6-8	No Red Ink A website put together by a former high school English teacher in Chicago, Jeff Scheur, may be used to help students improve their grammar and writing skills. This site is teacher and student friendly and may be used by all classes to help hone in on different aspects of grammar and writing. Brittany Fisher: 7th-12th	QR Codes: learn how to utilize QR codes in various way throughout your classroom. Elizabeth Ayer (Daviness County): PreK-6	Seating for Optimal Learning, The Occupational Therapy Approach Presented by Jessica Lynn, MS OTR/L and Dale Lynn, OTR/L Objectives for this session include: Why is seating important? How to identify children who may need seating modifications. Easy to implement classroom modification to promote optimal learning. Sitting vs Moving, identifying an appropriate balance. Classroom activities to promote optimal learning.
10-10:20	How to use Vine in the classroom: a way to bring technology into the classroom and let the students be creative. Vine is an app which people can take sections of video and combine them to make a looping 7 second video. Ciera Gary: 4th-12th	Let's talk On-Demand": Rachelle Davis, Angie Parker	Positive Behavior Supports in Specialized Settings: How to set up a program and/or collaborate with outside professionals. Christina Noel, Cain Alvey (WKU): All grades	Specific Learning Disability Guidance Document - required for all sp ed teachers. Christy Nofsinger, Monte Gannon, Pam Shrewsbury	Class Dojo- interactive, customizable online behavior management tool that can be controlled by using your desktop, iPad or, iPhone. Jennifer Porter: PreK-6th
10:30-10:50	Educreations: how to prerecord instructions for center activities. Elizabeth Ayer (Daviness County): PreK-3	Engineering in Elementary Classes: Using NGSS Engineering Standards. Kenrda Young, Tina Jolly: PreK-6th	Comparison of peer assisted learning strategies and direct instruction strategies for students with learning disabilities. A look at previous research regarding two evidence based strategies that can be effective when teaching students with learning disabilities. The presentation focuses on math instruction, however, the strategies can be applied to other subject areas. Cain Alvey (WKU): All grades	Specific Learning Disability Guidance Document - required for all sp ed teachers. Christy Nofsinger, Monte Gannon, Pam Shrewsbury	Digital Classrooms: Explore several options for bringing your classroom online. Aaron Yeiser (Daviness County): 4th-12th
11-12:20
12:30-12:50	Barton Reading and Spelling System: The Barton program has been utilized this summer at the district's Reading Camp and will be piloted in a couple of RTI/Special Education settings during the upcoming school year. Barton's focuses on auditory discrimination by working students through various levels/topics. Lori Brown, Michelle Magan: All Grades	Kindergarten Screen Update Training Session...yearly update. Anyone administering the Brigance Kindergarten Screener will need to participate in this training session. Kara Bullock: PreK-3	Using remind 101 and other social media to create positive communication with parents. Brook Wise: All Grades	Math at the Core - Over 400 digital resources aligned with grades 5-8 Common Core State Standards for Mathemathics and focused on critical middle school math concepts. Amy Grant (KET) 6-8	Sp Ed Updates - required for all sp ed teacher. Christy Nofsinger, Monte Gannon, Pam Shrewsbury
1-1:20	Struggling Readers: T1, T2, T3 Strategies that Work - overview of RTI strategies to use for struggling readers at all tier levels. How to decide what to use and when to use it. Kristy Murphy: PreK-6	RTI at the elementary level. Kara Bullock, Christy Nofsinger: PreK-6	No Red Ink A website put together by a former high school English teacher in Chicago, Jeff Scheur, may be used to help students improve their grammar and writing skills. This site is teacher and student friendly and may be used by all classes to help hone in on different aspects of grammar and writing. Brittany Fisher: 7th-12th	Mission US - Mission US is a multimedia project that immerses players in U.S. history content through free interactive games. Missions include: "For Crown or Colony?" (Revolutionary War), "Flight to Freedom" (Underground Railroad), "A Cheyenne Odyssey" (Westward Expansion), and soon-to-be-released "Sidewalks of New York" (Turn-of-the-Century Immigration). Amy Grant (KET) 6-8	PGES Information: Cheston Hoover
1:30-1:50	How to use Vine in the classroom: a way to bring technology into the classroom and let the students be creative. Vine is an app which people can take sections of video and combine them to make a looping 7 second video. Ciera Gary: 4th-12th	Engineering in Elementary Classes: Using NGSS Engineering Standards. Kenrda Young, Tina Jolly: PreK-6th	OverDrive--online reading with public library resource. Becky Tichenor: All grades	Digital Classrooms: Explore several options for bringing your classroom online. Aaron Yeiser (Daviness County): 4th-12th	PGES Information: Cheston Hoover
2-2:20	Rapid fire two minute sessions in the cafeteria. Topics TBA. Presenters will be entered into a drawing for great prizes. Sign up in the lobby.	Rapid fire two minute sessions in the cafeteria. Topics TBA. Presenters will be entered into a drawing for great prizes. Sign up in the lobby.	Rapid fire two minute sessions in the cafeteria. Topics TBA. Presenters will be entered into a drawing for great prizes. Sign up in the lobby.	Rapid fire two minute sessions in the cafeteria. Topics TBA. Presenters will be entered into a drawing for great prizes. Sign up in the lobby.	Rapid fire two minute sessions in the cafeteria. Topics TBA. Presenters will be entered into a drawing for great prizes. Sign up in the lobby.
2:30-2:50	Rapid fire two minute sessions in the cafeteria. Topics TBA. Presenters will be entered into a drawing for great prizes. Sign up in the lobby.	Rapid fire two minute sessions in the cafeteria. Topics TBA. Presenters will be entered into a drawing for great prizes. Sign up in the lobby.	Rapid fire two minute sessions in the cafeteria. Topics TBA. Presenters will be entered into a drawing for great prizes. Sign up in the lobby.	Rapid fire two minute sessions in the cafeteria. Topics TBA. Presenters will be entered into a drawing for great prizes. Sign up in the lobby.	Rapid fire two minute sessions in the cafeteria. Topics TBA. Presenters will be entered into a drawing for great prizes. Sign up in the lobby.

Representatives from Zoo-phonics will be available in the Media Center. They will be meeting with instructional assistants from 8-12 and K teachers from 1-4.

Can't find a session to attend? Meet with representatives from WKU to discuss furthering your education. WKU's information table is located in the lobby.

TeachMeet Ohio County 2014

	ROOM 140	ROOM 114	ROOM 109	ROOM 139	ROOM 102
8:30-8:50	Writing Strategies for the Reluctant Writer Guided and independent activities to use with children who need motivation to write. Kim Sanders: K-2	Parent resources and services provided by Hope For Life. Stacy Boyd:	Apps for the classroom. Jon Johnson: All grades	Capturing mini-lessons for students (using QuickTime). Kenneth Alford: All grades	Writer's Workshop: Maintain classroom management while conducting centers in a standards-driven writer's workshop. Sharilyn Ward: PreK-6th
9-9:20	Wikispaces: using student-created and curated content in research writing and argument writing, including peer feedback and authentic audience. Hilary Thompsn: All grades.	Flipped Classroom and WSQ Method in the Language Arts Classroom. Sandra Roopchan: 4th-6th	Gifted and Talented: an overview of the program and ideas for serving G/T students in the regular classroom. Bonnie Honaker, Deloris Everley: 4th-12th	PASS program (Positive Approach to Student Success) - used with EBD students and OHI students with behavior goals. Angie Embry, Ben Everly: All Grades	Reading Recovery strategies for the Resource Room. Carolyn Casteel: PreK-3
9:30-9:50	The iPad Smackdown for Primary! Hear from Lead Learner, iPad Veteran User, and 1st grade student, Gracie Lile how she has utilizes her iPad and Macbook Air to personalize learning for herself! Gracie Lile (1st grade student): Prek-3	Unit planning: Units that are aligned with standards, grades 3-6, language arts. Heather Carden, Kechie Smith: 3rd-6th	Getting Started with the Academic Team: Question/Answer session about rules of competing in KAAC. Samantha Herrell: 4th-12th	Vocal Hygiene: Making Your Voice Last Throughout Your Career. Peggy Duvall. All Grades	Promethean Board Resources: ActivInspire, Promethean Planet, SMART Exchange, and etc. Brandon Lindsey, Lisa Murrey: PreK-6th
10-10:20	It's a Google Smackdown! Hear from a Lead Learner all the cool tools offered through Google absolutely FREE to educators and more importantly how to use those tools to support the effective and efficient use of instruction in your classroom! Terri Stice (GRREC): All Grades	Fluency, vocabulary, and anchor charts: Learn some quick and easy ideas to help your students enhance their literacy skills. Debbie Gowins, Lynda Robey, Linda Chapman, Karen Lasher: PreK-3	Standards-Based Grading Introduction: Interested in making your grades more meaningful, informative and reflective of student learning? This session will describe what standards-based grading is and will address the research supporting standards-based grading and the case for improving our grading practices. Joye Beth Spinks: All Grades.	Using OneCall Now for classroom text and voice messages. Tony Minton: All grades	RTI: The Speech/Language Process with Emphasis on Language. Laura Schroader, Jamie Hamilton: PreK-6
10:30-10:50	Classroom Management--Tools and strategies that work. Teams of students and teachers benefit from consistency with these management strategies. Jennifer Stafford, Bonnie Simpson: 4th-8th	Fluency, vocabulary, and anchor charts: Learn some quick and easy ideas to help your students enhance their literacy skills. Debbie Gowins, Lynda Robey, Linda Chapman, Karen Lasher: PreK-3	Standards-Based Grading-How to get started: This session is a continuation of the Standards-Based Grading Introduction. Come for a step-by-step guide to how to shift to standards-based grading in your classroom. Joye Beth Spinks: All Grades.	Interactive Math Notebooks....for all ages! Hope Clayton: PreK-6th	Voluntary hearing screening for TeachMeet attendees: Laura Schroader, Jamie Hamilton: All grades
11-12:20
12:30-12:50	OZ Productions: You don't have to be a wizard to introduce theatre into your classroom...let us do it for you... OZ Productions works to provide high quality theatre performances, workshops, and events for and by the youth of Ohio County and its surrounding areas. Delia Osborne: All Grades	National Board for Professional Teaching Standards. For those interested in becoming National Board Certified. Dr. Lynn Hines (WKU): All Grades	Office 365 Tools. Learn how to create and share documents with other teachers or students at the same time. Daniel McCoy: All Grades	School Climate Transformation Grant. Krista Padgett, Sheila Barnard, Linda Reid (Together We Care): All Grades	Watch D.O.G.S. (Dads of Great Students) A national recognized program to get the fathers/men in the schools not only as a "presence" but as a mentor and help to the administration/teachers. Joe Simmons (Fordsville Baptist Church: All Grades
1-1:20	Wikispaces: using student-created and curated content in research writing and argument writing, including peer feedback and authentic audience. Hilary Thompsn: All grades.	Inclusion of special needs students in the general education classroom. Jaime O'Bryan, Benita Rowe: All Grades	Upper Elementary activities for NGSS: Hands-on activities to meet the new science standards. Christie Young, Teresa Tarter: 4th-6th	Fordsville Treehouse Club: After school and summer program. Shannon Wilson	Office 365 Tools. Learn how to create and share documents with other teachers or students at the same time. Daniel McCoy: All Grades
1:30-1:50	Whole Brain Teaching: Beginning Whole Brain Teaching in your classroom and the benefits. Kathy Vance, Jena Head: PreK-3	Flipped Classroom and WSQ Method in the Language Arts Classroom. Sandra Roopchan: 4th-6th	Apps for the classroom. Jon Johnson: All grades	Capturing mini-lessons for students (using QuickTime). Kenneth Alford: All grades	Gifted and Talented: an overview of the program and ideas for serving G/T students in the regular classroom. Bonnie Honaker, Deloris Everley: 4th-12th
2-2:20	Rapid fire two minute sessions in the cafeteria. Topics TBA. Presenters will be entered into a drawing for great prizes. Sign up in the lobby.	Rapid fire two minute sessions in the cafeteria. Topics TBA. Presenters will be entered into a drawing for great prizes. Sign up in the lobby.	Rapid fire two minute sessions in the cafeteria. Topics TBA. Presenters will be entered into a drawing for great prizes. Sign up in the lobby.	Rapid fire two minute sessions in the cafeteria. Topics TBA. Presenters will be entered into a drawing for great prizes. Sign up in the lobby.	Rapid fire two minute sessions in the cafeteria. Topics TBA. Presenters will be entered into a drawing for great prizes. Sign up in the lobby.
2:30-2:50	Rapid fire two minute sessions in the cafeteria. Topics TBA. Presenters will be entered into a drawing for great prizes. Sign up in the lobby.	Rapid fire two minute sessions in the cafeteria. Topics TBA. Presenters will be entered into a drawing for great prizes. Sign up in the lobby.	Rapid fire two minute sessions in the cafeteria. Topics TBA. Presenters will be entered into a drawing for great prizes. Sign up in the lobby.	Rapid fire two minute sessions in the cafeteria. Topics TBA. Presenters will be entered into a drawing for great prizes. Sign up in the lobby.	Rapid fire two minute sessions in the cafeteria. Topics TBA. Presenters will be entered into a drawing for great prizes. Sign up in the lobby.

Representatives from Zoo-phonics will be available in the Media Center. They will be meeting with instructional assistants from 8-12 and K teachers from 1-4.

Can't find a session to attend? Meet with representatives from WKU to discuss furthering your education. WKU's information table is located in the lobby.